

Flexi Software and Maximum Processing Form Partnership

The Enterprise Accounting Software Provider expands its List of Insurance

Industry Partners

NAPLES, Fla./Thursday, January 14, 2010 — Flexi Software, a provider of best-of-breed, back office accounting software solutions, announced today that Maximum Processing, a provider of a Web-based, insurance policy, billing, claims and business intelligence processing system, has signed on as Flexi's newest Partner.

"Flexi's Partnership Program gained a lot of momentum last year and we look forward to the continued momentum this year," said Stefan R. Bothe, CEO of Flexi Software. "We look forward to another successful relationship with the professionals at Maximum Processing."

Maximum's customers will benefit from this partnership as they will have quick and direct access to Flexi, a best-of-breed accounting software vendor who is aware of their unique needs and requirements, without having to spend time vetting numerous vendors. They can also gain confidence that both companies are working in unison toward one goal – reliable technology and superior customer service.

"Maximum Processing is committed to providing carriers with improved features and options," continued Sean Pitcher. "This partnership with Flexi is another milestone which continues to build on our commitment to Stingray's users."

The Stingray System is a policy, billing, claims and reinsurance administration system which provides workflow, imaging, many third party interfaces (e.g. Credit Card, General Ledger, Comparative Raters, CLUE, bureau stat reporting, business intelligence and others) . It comes with consumer and agent portals as well a full point of sale system.
